Career. Responsibilities. Perspectives.

Chairman of COBIL SA's board of directors Contributor to Congolese public debate

A Congolese public career

Jean Thierry Monsenepwo, from political engagement to corporate governance.

A presence in Congolese public life

Jean Thierry Monsenepwo Mototo is a Congolese political figure and chairman of COBIL SA's board of directors. His public career spans political communication, responsibilities within a state-portfolio company and discussions about citizenship and entrepreneurship.

Political engagement and dialogue

Associated with Lambert Mende Omalanga's Convention des Congolais Unis, he was identified by Radio Okapi in 2021 as president of the party's youth league. On 6 January that year, he accompanied Mende to a meeting with President Félix-Antoine Tshisekedi.

Chairing COBIL SA's board

His appointment was reported in June 2023. COBIL's institutional board page cites ordinance no. 23/107 of 30 June 2023 and identifies him as chairman. The timeline distinguishes the initial news report from the institutional reference.

Reference role

The chairmanship of COBIL SA's board is distinct from the chief executive role. The CICM appointment is described in the sources as a volunteer commitment.
